Training Colleges which would like a lecture from
Mr. Household at some time.

- Cambridge. Mr. Fox, Univ. Training College for Schoolmasters, Warkworth House.
Miss Wood, Cambridge Training College for Women (Post-graduate).
Mrs. Franklin has seen both and both said they hoped you would come and lecture to their students.
- Durham. Rev. E. F. Braley, Bede College, Durham.
- Derby. Lichfield & Southwell Diocesan Training College,
The Rev. Canon Derby.
Bater.
- Sheffield. City Training College, Collegiate Crescent,
Mr. S. Hoole.
He said that what he knew of Miss Mason's methods led him to think they were the negation of teaching and the elimination of the teacher.
- Hereford. Training College.
Miss Jennings, Acting Principal. You have been there before but they would like you again.

Notes. There are many more but I think I can send Miss Gladding to the less important ones. Should we offer Prof. Bompas Smith, Manchester, a lecture?
He has only had a talk with Dr. Petrie and would be the better for a lecture and it is an important place. I have no response from Liverpool but would try and work them in too if you do go to Manchester.

Mr. Household's visit to Mr. Hendy of the Oxford University Training Department.

Mr. Household lectured to the students for an hour. They then asked him to remain on for questions and these continued for some time. He then had about 1-hour private interview with Mr. Hendy who is most sympathetic to the methods and quite against the present "lecture" methods of teaching. He has invited Mr. Household to go to his students' summer school for two days at the end of August and also asked him to go again next year and give similar lecture to the one he gave now to the new students. He is sending some of his students to the Farmor's Endowed School Fairford which is working on P.W.E.U. lines.
